Each point is one chemical identity; colors require agreement across technical halves

Positive = opposition to the specified reference. No phenotype reversal or therapeutic selectivity established.